

June 18, 2010

OK! EXCLUSIVE: Doug Reinhardt Gushes Over New Girlfriend

Doug Reinhardt has moved past his relationship with socialite Paris Hilton and is now dating another (younger) blonde bombshell – former Miss World USA Lane Lindell. The hot reality star stopped by the OK! NYC offices to talk about his new girlfriend, who he debuted on the carpet for the first time Thursday night!

“I didn’t even know she was Miss World,” Doug admits to OK!. “We met at a pool party actually. Her friends introduced us, and we kind of just hit it off on the spot.”

So how is Lane different from the reality star’s past relationships?

First, the 20-year-old beauty queen, who held the Miss World title in 2008, is younger than some of Doug’s former girlfriends (Paris was five years older).

“She is still in college,” Doug tells OK!. “It’s kind of a long distance relationship.”

Despite their location, Doug and Lane manage to spend as much time together as their busy schedules allow.

“She’s very sweet, nice, she’s a great girl,” Doug gushes to OK! about his 5 ft. 10 in. model girlfriends. “She’s awesome – has her head on her shoulders. Very pretty. She’s great.”

The hot couple rocked the red carpet last night for the first time at the Dockers Khakis Make The Man Event benefiting Habitat for Humanity in NYC. They stayed close to one another as they mingled and enjoyed the evening’s festivities!

Doug – who currently has a new reality show in production – refers to himself as a “hopeless romantic” and loves to take his new leading lady out on the town!

However, he also enjoys their quiet nights together.

On his last romantic date, Doug tells OK!, “We had a nice dinner, just walked around. Just enjoyed the city [NYC], enjoyed each other. We actually watched Hot Tub Time Machine. So romantic. It was cool. We had fun.”